

Please do not allow this to pass. Consumers have enjoyed being able to copy programs and watch them at their leisure for years. Broadcasters are not losing money hand over fist with this, why remove the option from the public to protect the interest of big business.